

Dear Anderson Parents/Guardians:

For the next several weeks, Anderson School staff and students will be learning and practicing the following expectations and behaviors. Please feel free to teach and practice these skills at home.

The PBS TEAM

Anderson Expectations Lesson Plan
Week of Feb. 14
Objective - The students will make eye contact with the person who is speaking to them.
Rationale – Making eye contact is a way of showing confidence and respect.
Week of Feb. 21
Objective - Students will appropriately congratulate a person who has done well.
Rationale – People who are praised and rewarded for their efforts will do a better job. A supportive environment helps everyone achieve their goals.
Week of Feb. 28
Objective - During discussions, students will respect other students' comments, opinions, and ideas.
Rationale - This will create a supportive and nonthreatening environment in the classroom.
Week of Mar. 7
Objective - Students will show appreciation by saying thank you when given something.
Rationale – People will respond positively to a polite person.
